

GCSE History at Stoke High School

Why study history?

- We can understand what came before us.
- As historians, we learn valuable transferable skills:
 - Analysis
 - Evaluation
 - Communication
 - Constructing arguments

What can history get me?

Further study:

A-levels (ancient history, medieval history, modern history, government and politics, sociology, archaeology)

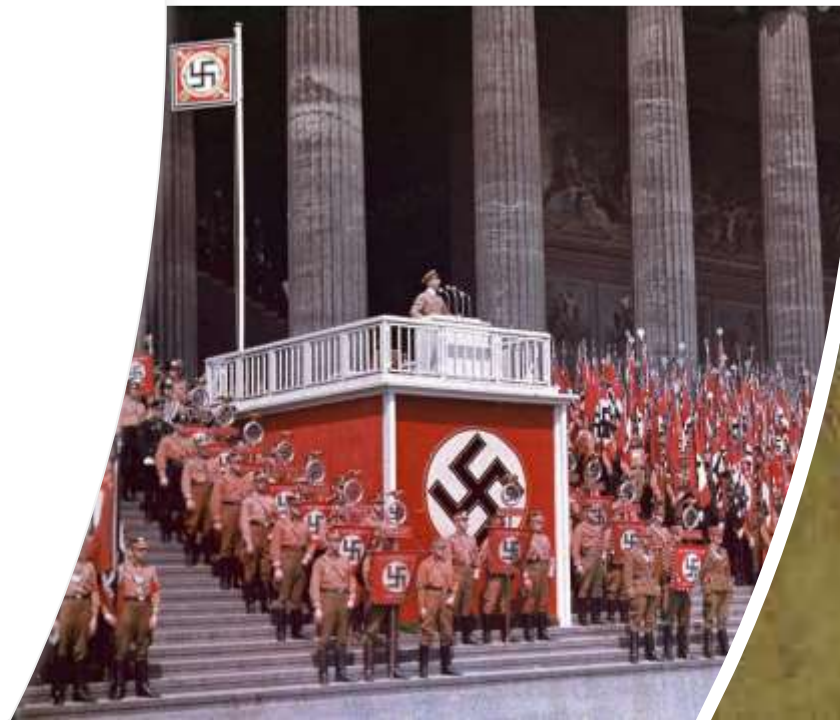

Careers

Professional historian,
Archaeologist, History teacher / professor, Museum curator, Heritage manager, Librarian, Journalist,
Lawyer

GCSE history curriculum at Stoke High School

- Crime and Punishment through time
- Weimar and Nazi Germany
- Superpower relations and the Cold War
- Early Elizabethan England

A medieval manuscript illustration depicting three figures standing on a landscape. The figures are dressed in simple, practical clothing of the period. The background is a mix of green and blue, suggesting an outdoor setting.