

Careers Plan – Year 7

Curriculum

PSHE – Being an active citizen

English

Maths – Negative numbers – Temperature, weather, banks. Binary Code.
Construction – architect, Fractions – recipes, being a chef. Algebra – Transferable skills – problem solving.

Science - Careers focus which links to topic – Pulmonologist, GP,
Radioactive Waste Management, Drone Pilot, Pharmacist, Site Manager, Biomedical Scientist.

MFL - Constant focus on desirability of transactional language to build rapport with clients within business. Module 3 – Raising aspirations – where can languages take me? Colonie de Vacances – reference to job opportunities. Module 4 – Social Mobility discussion. Module 5 – Tourism – jobs available.

PE – Opportunities to be scorers, referees, coaches and participants

Technology - focus on Andy Goldsworthy, Horst P Horst. Practicals in Hospitality and Catering – focus on healthy eating/diet. Workshop tools and machinery, PPE – focus on Alexandra Llewelyn. Bridges and Cranes in STEM.

Art – Pop Art - David Hockney (working artist), Natural Forms – Jo
Tomlinson (working artist), Waves – Maggie Hambling

Geography – careers topic in Autumn term.

Enrichment

Democracy in action – voting on school leadership, being a member of Parliament.

Careers Fair - focus on exploring opportunities and asking questions.

Careers Guidance – access to impartial Level 6 careers advisor.

National Careers Week activities

Ski Trip – focus on wider world careers opportunities, tourism, hospitality, ski guides

Legoland Trip – creative construction

Live performance opportunities – school show, Summer concert, choir.

School Show – process of creating a full production. Roles include performer, backstage, technical support.

Colchester or Norwich castle trip – discussion on job roles. Sutton Hoo trip.

Zoo Trip – roles within conservations

Register and Read – form time reading with focus on careers

Careers Plan – Year 7

Curriculum

History – what is a historian? What is an archaeologist? Basil Brown - Sutton Hoo

RS – Diversity in the workplace